

Joey Scout Badges

The Promise Challenge

The aim of this challenge is to allow the older Joey Scouts to gain a greater understanding of the Promise and Law and to learn about B-P and the history of Scouting.

The challenge should reflect –

- Duty to God
- Duty to Self
- Duty to Others

This will require the Joey Scout to complete certain elements away from the Mob meeting. These will involve research and discussion with their parents and leaders as well as a presentation to their mob on completion of the task.

B-P/Scouting History

Ask your parents for permission to use the internet, or the library to find out some information about B-P and Scouting.

Who was B-P? Joey Scouts have a choice as to ‘writing’ about or ‘telling’ us about information.

Find out about five interesting things about B-P and either write down or tell your Mob. Some things you might like to ask about –

- BP’s job, family, where he lived, what he did, what he was famous for, date of birth.
- How many other sections in Scouting are there? Can you name the other sections?
- What is a Jamboree or Cuboree? You might like to ask Cubs and Scouts for help.

Duty to God

- Why do we say a prayer at the Joey Scout meeting?
- Write a prayer about what it means to 'love my God' and share at your Mob meeting or at a Scout's Own.

Duty to Self/Others

- Think of a way you can help another person in your community/area where you live and discuss this with your parents and JS Leader.
- Do your best to complete the activity you have chosen and share with your Mob and leaders. You might like to take photos or draw pictures to keep for yourself and share with others.

Each badge component is to be signed off by the Joey Scout leader using a card, which will be available early in 2005.

The BC Joey Scouts is to sign off on the award in order for the Mob to obtain the badges. Badges are to be made available from Branch or Snowgum.
